The 45-year old building had its first life-cycle renovation, with additions to the Auto Tech Shop, new classroom and conference space, and modified floor plan to enhance operational and educational efficiencies with consolidation of Kiddie Tech into one space.

- 95% building reuse.
- 30% water use reduction.
- 10% energy use reduction through energy modeling.
- 88% of site left untouched as dedicated open space.
- Locally-sourced building materials.
- New reflective roof.
- HVAC system retained, with updated controls and major components.
- Existing asphalt used as base material under new pavement.
- Improved storm water management, including a rain garden and subsurface detention ponds.
